

Topological band theory

David Carpentier

ENS Lyon

These lectures will provide an introduction to the notion of topological characterization of condensed matter phases within band theory. I will focus on both gapped phases and semi-metals, and will favor the illustration by simple examples to an exhaustive treatment.